

"Black Politicians are Brain Dead" is truly appropriate.

"There are cases when an individual has been wrongfully treated by his government and about the only way, unless the individual resorts to court, and even in some cases the courts are not able to give proper relief, the only area or avenue open to the individual is through his representative. When you find a bona fide error has been made, I suggest that you make a maximum effort to remedy it. This I feel is a vital and important function of those of us in the House of Representatives."

As a 30 year Los Angeles City employee with a clean work record and stellar reputation, whose retirement and other benefits are being held without cause by the LADWP.

As of Thursday, July 22, 2010, I have been without LADWP provided electricity because the LADWP disconnect electric service from the pole to my home, for failure to pay the LADWP utility bill. Prior to being disconnect from LADWP utility power, I been denied retirement income from the LADWP without good cause, the only means that I have to pay utility and/or other bills.

To keep my food from spoiling I'm using a gasoline powered generator to supply electricity to my refrigerator and other necessities. In the interim at least one or more of my neighbors have contacted the LAPD. LAPD Officers have come to residence to ask that I shut off the generator down during night and early morning hours. To keep refrigerated food from spoiling, I must keep this generator running continuously.

I'm an over thirty year law abiding taxpaying resident of the 10th Los Angeles City and 2nd Supervisorial Los Angeles County District. This is not a police issue. Caucasian America, the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, the LADWP, the LAPD, 1st District Supervisor Gloria Molina, are not my enemies. Elected Black leaders who receive taxpayer's dollars from law abiding U.S. citizens like me, who ignore and trash the essence of what it means to be an elected official, are in fact an enemy to the U.S. born Black community.
